

SPEAKER SERIES:

Opioid Addiction: Loss, Recovery and Hope

THURSDAY, APRIL 23 • 1-3 PM

Pennsylvania College of Technology-Penn's Inn

Rep. Dan Williams
(D-Chester)

Rep. Doyle Heffley
(R-Carbon)

We are honored to welcome the chairs of the House Human Services Committee, Rep. Dan Williams (D-Chester) and Rep. Doyle Heffley (R-Carbon), who will open the discussion and provide an update on the committee's work and current legislation under consideration at the Capitol.

Carolyn Miele

Kevin McNamara

Marc Lovechio, Esq.

Kydreece Burks

Addiction affects everyone. Here to share their deeply personal stories of loss, resilience and hope are members of our community who have lived alongside a loved one in addiction. Hear the perspectives of addiction through the eyes of a mother, father, brother and son. Leave with information about support systems for families who have lost loved ones. Be inspired by their stories of perseverance, determination and success.

Rep. Jamie Flick
(R-Lycoming/Union)

Shea Madden -
West Branch Drug and Alcohol

Get information about the Pennsylvania Opioid Misuse and Addiction Abatement Trust, and the strides the Commonwealth, and the area, are making against the epidemic of opioid addiction.

Immediately following the Speaker Series, Rep. Flick's Human Services Expo will take place at the Field House on the Pennsylvania College of Technology campus from 3-6 p.m.